

Junior Activities News

BALTIMORE—Maggie Jones, of Brevard, N.C., was elected Honorary National Junior President of the Junior American Legion Auxiliary on Aug. 29, during the organization's 95th National Convention in Baltimore. She is the first Junior Auxiliary member from North Carolina to hold this office.

Along with Maggie Jones being elected as Honorary National Junior President, our own Carson DeLong, of Winston Salem, N.C., was elected as Honorary National Junior Southern Division Vice President.

Congratulations to the both of you for making North Carolina shine!
