

CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS CORNER

November-December 2022

SUBMITTED BY Martha Whitaker, 2022-2023 Department Chairman

It is imperative to understand the difference between Constitution and Bylaws. The Unit Constitution should contain articles that are rarely changed; such as the Articles of Incorporation, the core purpose, and the structure of your unit. Your Constitution rarely changes but you will need to adjust to agree with the National Constitution. Bylaws are defined as the governing regulations of your unit. Standing Rules are issues that relate to the administration specifically for your unit.
